6                   EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

7                   UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

8                   Plaintiff,

No. CR-13-6052-RHW-1

9                   v.

10                  KYLE A. HAGEN,

11                  Defendant.

ORDER GRANTING TERMINATION OF PROBATION

12                  Before the Court is Defendant's Motion to Terminate Supervised Release,
13 ECF No. 322.

14                  BACKGROUND

15                  On October 3, 2014, Mr. Hagen pleaded guilty to one count of Money
16 Laundering, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(a)(1)(A)(i). ECF No. 262. This Court
17 sentenced him to two years of probation and a $100 special penalty assessment on 18 March 5, 2015. ECF No. 306. Mr. Hagen moves the Court for early termination of 19 his probation.<sup>1</sup> ECF No. 322.

20                  DISCUSSION

21                  Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3564(c) the Court may, upon consideration of the 22 factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), terminate a term of previously ordered
23 probation after the expiration of one year of probation in a felony case, if the Court
24 is satisfied that the action is warranted by a defendant's conduct and the interests
25 of justice.

27                  

---

28                  <sup>1</sup> Mr. Hagen is on probation, as opposed to supervised release, and the Court recognizes Mr. Hagen's request is for termination of probation.

Mr. Hagen has been on supervision for at least one year, and he has fully complied with the terms of supervision, including abstention from drug use, lawful conduct, and compliance with the requests of U.S. Probation. U.S. Probation stated on April 4, 2016, that it has no objections to an early termination of probation for Mr. Hagen, and the Government did not file any objections to Mr. Hagen's motion. Mr. Hagen's conduct over the past year, the interests of justice, and the need to efficiently utilize judicial resources support his request for early termination of probation.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Defendant's Motion for Early Termination of Probation, ECF No. 322, is GRANTED.

2. Defendant's term of probation shall be TERMINATED effective immediately.

IT IS SO ORDERED. The District Court Executive is directed to enter this order and provide copies to counsel, Defendant, and U.S. Probation.

DATED this 5th day of April, 2016.
